ENEMIES OF CHRISTIANITY PLOTTED U.S. GOLGOTHA

A MORIBUND NATION NOW IN DECAY AND DISSOLUTION

By MARILYN R. ALLEN

America as a free White Christian Representative Republic is decaying so rapidly that it is doubtful if even a vestige of her former greatness, glory and honor can survive until her 200th Birthday in 1976! Question: Who in Washington actually does represent the majority White Christian population?

Traitors in high places have made of America merely a paying vassal to extraneous alien philosophies and peoples (usually called INTERnationalism by the give-away Liberals), but specifically called Marxism (based in the Soviet Union) and Zionism (based in the Socialist-Communist ersatz State of Israel). Our people at home are mere vassals in service and bondage to these two alien philosophies and their originators. None serves Constitutional Americanism nor the best interests of Americans, who are merely dumb, unresisting, exploited patsies. Communist-led (striking) labor unions render great aid to the downfall of our country.

"Sins of Omission" on the part of her citizens — failure to take their stand for Constitutional Americanism — has led to this debacle, the disastrous effects of which can now be neither prevented nor abated. Many people do not yet seem to comprehend that the American Republic is now in the fateful days of God's judgment upon a slothful people, because of great sins both of omission and commission, as well as her departure from her Christian Constitutional base, which required the American people and government to "come out and be separate" from the anti-Christ and from all alien foreign isms and peoples. But our people insisted upon "going a-whoring after strange flesh" and ideologies.

What Is Internationalism?

Here is the official definition of INTERnationalism by a Congress of the French Communist Party, as portrayed by a huge banner at their meeting:

"An INTERnationalist is a man who is ready to defend the Soviet Union without reserve, without hesitation, without conditions, because the Soviet Union is the base of the world revolutionary movement, and because it is impossible to defend or to advance this revolutionary movement without defending the Soviet Union."

Is this why the LBJ administration and the Congress make Consular Treaties, Nuclear Treaties, build Asiatic highways for Russia's convenience in carrying supplies to our enemies in North Vietnam, furnish the USSR with needed materiel, trade with them, build "cultural" bridges with them: in short, pamper the Soviet Union in every possible way

God bless our native land, firm may she ever stand,
Through storm and night;
When the wild tempests rave, Ruler of wind and wave,
Do Thou our country save, by Thy great might.
For her our prayers shall rise, to God above the skies,
On Him we wait;
Thou Who art ever nigh, guarding with watchful eye,
To Thee aloud we cry, God save the State.

U.S.A. A CHRISTIAN NATION LET'S KEEP IT THAT WAY

By TOM ANDERSON

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in His bosom that trans-
figures you and me;
As He died to make men holy, let us die
to make men free.

He was born in an obscure village 1,967 years ago. He grew up in another village, worked in a carpenter shop, was an itinerant preacher. He never made a business, professional or "social" success. He never went to school, owned a house, held an office, had a family and never traveled more than 200 miles from the place where He was born. Yet, the world's calendar is dated backward and forward from His birth. He never wrote a thing, yet His teachings have influenced the world more than any person who ever lived. He is the most lovable, compelling, fascinating, and perfect character of history.

He was so gentle that little children climbed on His knee and so strong that fearless men ran from the temple when He accused them of making it a den of thieves. Officers sent to arrest him returned empty-handed saying: "Never man spoke like this man."

The night before His execution His Roman soldier captors took turns lashing His back with a whip called a scourge made of leather straps weighted with pieces of metal. They knelt before Him in mock homage and then arose to spit in His face. About 8 a.m. they took Him to Calvary, stripped off all His clothing and set Him astride a wooden peg which jutted out from the upright pole of the cross. Then they nailed Him to the cross, between two thieves. Many victims of crucifixion became raving madmen before they expired, and often their tongues were cut out to stop their screams and curses. But as this silent victim looked down upon

SEPARATION OF CHURCH AND STATE

(Or What About the Use of Kosher Products in Tax-Supported Institutions?)

The campaign against Christian observances in this country was intensified in 1967. Of course prayer—even at graduation exercises—and Bible reading in public schools have been virtually eliminated on the basis that they are a violation of the cherished doctrine of separation of church and state. But in 1967 there was a rise in legal suits or in threats of litigation aimed against the display of creches and crosses in public parks and on public land; there were challenges to the very mention in public school of Christmas or Easter or to the acting of Christmas pageants or to the display of drawings by young pupils on the subject of Christmas. Thus the most important areas of the entire cultural tradition of the majority of pupils in the United States—Christmas and Easter—were attacked from Oregon to New Jersey, from New Mexico to Florida.

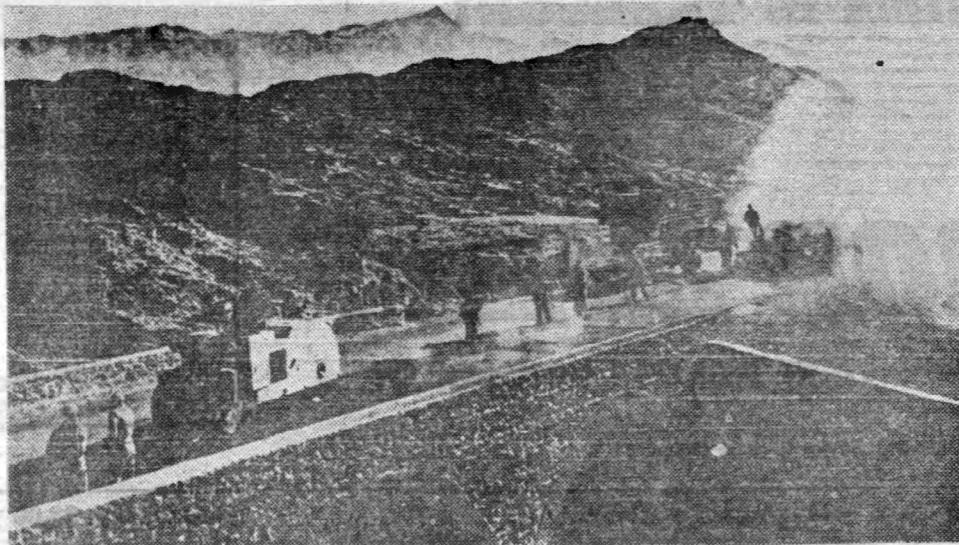

But what about the observance of important Jewish religious customs in tax-supported buildings and institutions—obliquely as they may be conducted? What about the use of kosher food products and cleansers in our schools, hospitals, custodial and penal institutions, public rest rooms, city hall, police stations, armories and other buildings supported by the tax-payer? This use of kosher products and cleansers definitely violates the same doctrine of separation of church and state. There is no record that this practice has been challenged by the professional agitators working through civil liberties outfits. When some non-Jewish, obscure citizen does challenge Christian observances, it is obvious that he cannot afford such expensive litigation and must be subsidized in some manner by the elements for which he fronts.

It should be emphasized that the Jews have every right to eat kosher food and to use kosher cleansers within their own homes and in their own institutions. They have every right to follow their own customs, based though they are on superstitions originating in the Orient at a time when refrigeration was unknown. But they are clearly in the wrong when they attempt to foist their dietary laws upon the non-Jewish population. And the final outrage lies in the fact that a sizable fee is exacted from every manufacturer of kosher products for the rabbis' services, unwanted as this supervision may be. (Letters from numerous companies freely admit that they pay an annual fee for the rabbis' time).

The use of kosher food in tax-supported institutions should be challenged. Its purchase with the taxpayers' money is a far

TREASON ROAD

The Forces of Communism and "Anti-Communism" Make Strange Bedfellows!

U.S. Army engineers and Afghan laborers building Trans-Asian highway system in concert with the Soviet Union. This highway will be used to supply the communists in North Vietnam and make it easier for them to kill your son. It has recently been brought to light that since 1959 the United States has been working with the U.S.S.R. and other nations in the area to build a high-speed paved highway connection from points within the Soviet Union, across Iran, Afghanistan, Pakistan, India and branching to Vietnam and Singapore. Officially it is being built under cover of a U.N. Commission but most of the cost is being paid by the U.S. taxpayer and the Soviet Union.

Details on this TREASON ROAD can be obtained from Nord Davis, Jr., Box 48, Hollis, N.H. 03049. Send stamped envelope.

A MORIBUND NATION

while she makes war on our men in Vietnam as well as a war of subversion and treason in the U.S.A. and supplies missiles and troops to Red Cuba, on our doorstep? Yet the President boasted in his deplorable "State of the Union" address to the Congress, via TV, on Jan. 17, 1968, of his success in making progress with the Soviet Union! Beginning with FDR (his model and New Deal Socialist idol) neither LBJ nor any of his advisers nor leading Congressmen seem to have learned the worse-than-folly (treason) of making any sort of treaties or agreements with the Soviet Union, whose officials have bluntly told us that "treaties, like pie-crust, are made to be broken" and broken they will be.

Here is another pertinent quote from Commentary, the American (?) Jewish Committee's official magazine, for November, 1958, page 376:

"The INTERnational government of the United Nations, stripped of its legal trimming, then, is really the International government of the United States and the Soviet Union acting in unison."

I guess if anybody knows, the Jews do, since the United Nations idea, charter and organization is strictly one originated by Jews.

All informed students well know that the current Negro Revolution in the U.S.A. is strictly a Soviet-Communist movement as announced in their manifesto of 1928, a copy of which is on file in the Library of Congress and which itemized their racial objectives in America. Virtually all its demands have been met by our Communist-oriented government and Supreme Court. Yet these continually-incipited Negroes are never satisfied. U.S. News & World Report for Jan. 15, 1968, quoted FBI Chief, J. Edgar Hoover, to effect that Communists have found the "black power" movement "tailor-made" for their purpose of stirring trouble in the U.S.A. (Some of us have known that for many years). And at p. 14 ibid, in passing sentence on "black power" advocate, LeRoi Jones, Judge Leon W. Kapp read an article by Jones which, the Judge said, encouraged Negroes to smash windows, steal, loot and kill.

Who Is to Blame?

There is no sense in the Negro hot-heads equating the Jew with the white Christian race, or with "Whitey" as some of them seem to do. The Jew himself disdains any connection with the Anglo-Saxon race and makes that clear in all his literature. He is a race, a people, a cult, an organized group (or whatever you wish to call it) completely separate and apart from the white Christian race, and he regards intermarriage with the latter as a sin. In Israel, it is forbidden. It is not the true whites who should be blamed for the actions of Jewish landlords and owners of Negro tenements or for the acts of Jewish usurers who charge Negroes exorbitant lending rates. The Jew lives off the white Christian also, the same as he does the Negro. The Jew is by nature and training a parasite who lives off all other people, to their misfortune, as was ably stated by Benjamin Franklin to the American Constitutional Convention in 1787.

No telling how many millions or billions of our gold sent abroad by the rascals in D.C. reaches Jewish hands. This Christian-founded Republic is right now at the station of Golgotha, or crucifixion, by her age-old enemies. LBJ (King of the Invisible Empire, or at least its handy-man) wants to remove all the remaining gold from our own stockpile, so that it too may go abroad, in payment for deficits which INTERnationalists in the administration have built up. This would leave the American people (whose gold it is) only increasingly worthless printed paper and spurious coins. The dollar is now said to be worth only 42¢ in buying power, and galloping inflation will decrease it still further. The only real money is SILVER and GOLD, of which the American people have virtually none, and are forbidden to own, apparently, for the express purpose of leaving them helpless pawns in the hands of their enemies. (He who has neither money nor prosperity is a slave to his masters).

Now if gold is so all-important to foreign nations that we must placate them by letting them have all of our gold, then why is not gold equally necessary and important to the American people and nation? Their interests should be safeguarded first by their overpaid "public servants." Why should the American people who have lavishly been stripped of billions in money and all kinds of "Foreign Aid" now give them the last of our gold? We read every so often of "counterfeitors" being arrested and prosecuted for imitating our money and bamboozling the public. Just what is our so-called government doing when it strips the people of their own gold and forces them to use spurious coins, while at the same time taxing them right out of their shoes, to pay for all this treason? And this treason includes the completely disastrous, unconstitutional, wicked NO-WIN WAR in Vietnam, run under the United Nations Charter, and which is merely a re-run of the bloody expensive war we lost in Korea.

The Most Happy Fella

Perhaps we may throw some light on this whole subject by referring to Don Bell's Closer Up for Dec. 1, 1967, titled "Reshuffling the Team," which says that the Jew, Walt W. Rostow is the President's most confidential adviser. His position with LBJ is comparable to that of the Jew, Col. House, with President Woodrow Wilson. You will note that these Jew-run Presidents, so-called Democrats, like FDR, Wilson, Truman, and LBJ, are always getting the U.S.A. into disastrous foreign wars which bleed America white of her best young men, as well as money. Rostow's published book, THE UNITED STATES IN THE WORLD ARENA, says that "The United States must finance the whole world with no strings attached regardless of damage to our own economy." So there you have it in a nutshell: this is Jewish INTERnationalism. Rostow is in charge of all "American" Foreign Policy planning (which is really foreign). Rostow is the "voice of democracy" so is LBJ. Neither seems to know that the U.S.A. is a Representative Republic and that "democracy" degenerates into mobocracy, such as we have in our streets today. Leftist Life Magazine for Dec. 1, 1967, carried an article on "The Most Happy Fella in the White House" — meaning Walt Rostow, who is Special Assistant to the President for national security matters! Yet Rostow by his own written words hates American nationalism and is busy destroying our sovereignty as well as our national defense, through disarmament.

Americans interested in their own fate or who think they have any rights to "Liberty and Property" or real money, should read Don Bell's documented weekly report titled "Liberty and Property: Can One Exist Without the Other?" for Jan. 12, 1968, as well as his Closer Up of the same date on a "Sane Financial Policy" — our present one being insane. Without property or genuine money, one has no freedom!

In An Ideal America Every Person Should Be Free

... to pursue his ambition to the full extent of his abilities, regardless of race or creed or family background.

... to associate with whom he pleases for any reason he pleases, even if someone else thinks it's a stupid reason.

... to worship God in his own way, even if it isn't "orthodox."

... to choose his own trade and to apply for any job he wants—and to quit his job if he doesn't like it or he gets a better offer.

... to go into business for himself, be his own boss, and set his own hours of work—even if it's only three hours a week.

... to use his honestly acquired property or savings in his own way—spend it foolishly, invest it wisely, or even give it away.

... to offer his services or products for sale on his own terms, even if he loses money on the deal.

... to buy or not to buy any service or product offered for sale, even if the refusal displeases the seller.

... to disagree with any person, even when the majority is on the side of the other person.

... to study and learn whatever strikes his fancy, as long as it seems to him worth the cost and effort of studying and learning it.

... to do as he pleases in general, as long as he doesn't infringe the equal right and opportunity of every other person to do as he pleases.

The above, in a nutshell, is the way of life which the libertarian philosophy commands. It means no special privilege from government for anyone. It is the way of individual liberty, of the free market, of private property, of government limited to securing these rights equally for all.

From Ideas on Liberty, May, 1955.

PUEBLO INCIDENT

The Navy's "contingency plans" to force release of the PUEBLO sound like old-fashioned Americanism to us, and we might just regain some of our almost irrevocably lost prestige if the President adopted them. The Navy plan calls for immediate seizure of five North Korean ships and crews as a reprisal measure. We would then initiate bargaining with North Korea. If this effort failed, we'd take five more. We'd continue this procedure until either the North Koreans released the PUEBLO or their entire merchant fleet is driven from the high seas.

Write your senators, congressmen and the President demanding that the Navy plan be adopted.

Separation Of Church And State

more serious violation of the doctrine of separation of church and state than any child's drawing in kindergarten can possibly be.

Just what is "kosher" food? The word means "fit" or "proper." There is ample material on the subject in Jewish publications, Jewish cook books and the like. Some of the metropolitan newspapers devote entire pages to kosher recipes at the time of the Jewish holidays. Newspaper items reveal that lists of foodstuffs and cleansers may be obtained, for example, from the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America, Dept. H, 84 Fifth Ave., Suite 1110, New York 10011. Their kosher mark is a letter "U" in a circle, usually found at the lower right corner of a package. The letter "K" enclosed in a circle is likewise found, indicating that the product has been supervised by the Union of Chassidic Rabbis, 47 Beekman St., New York 10038, who publish The Synagogue Light. A recent issue of The Synagogue Light features on its inside cover Saratoga Geyser Water, (bottled by the state of New York), prepared under the strict rabbinical supervision of Rabbi A. Kraus, formerly Chief Rabbi of Buenos Aires. On pp. 8-17, there is an informative article, indicating what motivates the Jewish mind today:

"At this critical period of international strife, Jews will gladly . . . cooperate with the well-meaning gentiles in the field of social justice, civil rights and the general amelioration of economic distress . . . but any serious minded, conscientious Jew and true believer . . . will not enter in any kind of dialogues with Christians or accept any 'guidelines' for joint prayer in the synagogue, church or other religious functions:

"The Christian faith in all its ratifications is foreign to the very nature and character of the Jew.

"How can a Jew sit side by side with a Christian friend in such a place (a church) where the Torquemadas of all ages preached their gospel of hatred . . . and from where a Martin Luther preached his rabid, anti-Semitic doctrine which, according to William Shirer, author of the Rise and Fall of the Third Reich, was a factor in the rise to power in Germany of Nazism and Hitlerism.

"The true Jew, the world over, will resist violently the possible exposure of their children and adults to a set of teachings and ceremonials which may directly and indirectly interfere with their normal Jewish spiritual growth . . . Christian principles the Jewish community has rejected through the ages."

So it is clear who hates whose customs and ceremonials. But the question then arises, cannot the Christian community defend itself? Must Christian citizens pay taxes to cover foodstuffs and cleansers which have had an alien religious ritual performed upon them — and pay a price for these products in which the cost of the rabbis' fees must be included?

The Synagogue Light carries an obituary on one Joseph Jacobs who founded an advertising agency which "specialized in promotion of products to major ethnic groups in major cities." (It would be a digression to point out that the major "ethnic" groups in this country are German, Irish and Italian with Puerto Ricans coming on strong). The obituary goes on to describe how Joseph Jacobs — long active in the National Conference of Christians and Jews — pursued his objective for more than 40 years; how in 1935 he put on his first commercial radio program over WEVD (Station Eugene V. Debs) with Molly Picon as his first star and Maxwell House Coffee as his first sponsor, that company having been his client since 1923 (so this "putch" has been going on for 45 years).

In more recent years, Maxwell House Coffee printed a small blue booklet — 4x5½ inches — with HAGGADAH on the front, designed to be read backward and bearing the imprint of Joseph Jacobs Organization. This booklet was stacked on grocery shelves for Passover along with Maxwell House coffee. Dugan's Bakery Company also had a large orange, one-fold leaflet reprinting a statement from Joseph Jacobs, distributed at Jewish

RABBI "AT WORK" SUPERVISING KOSHER KITCHEN.

New Year. The New York Times ran an article in its section on news of the advertising and marketing world (Sept. 4, 1956), in which it names 10 companies sending out messages from the Bible for Rash ha-Shanah: American Home Products Corporation, Best Foods, Inc., Calvert Distillers Co., Colgate Palmolive Co., Four Roses Distillers Co., General Foods Corporation, Hoffman Beverage Co., Kraft Foods Company, Pabst Brewing Co. and Seagram Distillers Co., each presenting a different, printed and illustrated message from the Old Testament for the year 5717. (No record of messages from the New Testament at Easter to the rest of the population!).

Time Magazine, Feb. 20, 1956, carried two columns on the Jewish revival of interest in Jewish dietary law, generally known as Kashruth. It said that many national brands were adding kosher products, but did not reveal that many national brands were actually making kosher products for their total sale to all buyers. The brands named were Heinz, Beech-Nut, Brillo, Curtiss Candy Bar (Baby Ruth). Time quoted Rabbi Leonard Oschry of Chicago's Hebrew Theological College as saying: "By observing it, I make my whole life holy; it is a daily reminder of my Jewishness." Time commented that the original reasons for the dietary laws were probably hygienic but did not deny they are a serious religious matter as well.

The Synagogue Light lists the products which it approves by marking them with an encircled "K" and also carries ads displaying "U."

White Rock	Kirsch Beverages
Canada Dry	Planters Oil
Pepsi Cola	No-Cal
Coca Cola	Hoffman's Beverages
Yuban Coffee	Babo
Super Suds	Dutch
Vel	Brillo
Oakite	Ajax
All	Sani-Flush
Fab	Domino Sugar
Reynold's Wrap	Jack Frost Sugar
Diamond Salt	Barricini Candies
Kraft Oil	Barton's Candies
Kraft's Preserves	Chateau Martin Wine
Bosco Milk Amplifier	La France Bluing
Fannings Pickles	Presto Cake Mixes
Mazola Oil	H-O Oats
Skippy Peanut Butter	Cream Farina
Tender Leaf Tea	Nucoa Margarine
Clapp's Baby Foods	Chase and Sanborn Coffee, all Heinz products, Sunsweet Prune Juice, Mott's Apple Juice and Fruits. Hellmann's Margarine and Hellmann's Mayonnaise.

You name it! And further, the book states that properly ordained orthodox rabbis must endorse the kosher products. It is a religious duty to observe this custom (page 26).

There is an interesting anecdote about "All:" A Monsanto full page ad for "All" was published in the New York Journal American, April 21, 1951, prominently displaying the "U" while the identical ad in the Greenville News, S.C. dated the next day, April 22, 1951, showed no "U." Obviously the company did not wish to emphasize a condition where it might have an adverse affect on the buying public — or bring the whole problem out in the open. Barton and Barricini (real name, Jack Singer) also have confusing and deceptive ads for their candies: When Christmas and Chanukkah are near, the ads show the "U" and proudly refer to it when displaying Chanukkah chocolate matzoth candies but omit it for Christmas copy. Barton's shows chocolate Easter bunnies that undoubtedly are kosher as it would be impossible to isolate vast batches of chocolate while making "two styles." It is almost amusing to read an ad for Milady's Blintzes for Lent—with the "U" prominently displayed. They just gave up pretending. Who cares if kosher cheese blintz are eaten during Lent? Who cares about Lent?

It is hard to believe that good Irishmen would lend themselves to the dinners of the Loyal League of Yiddish Sons of Erin (loyal to whom?), but attorney Paul O'Dwyer, brother of the late mayor of New York City, attended their St. Patrick's Day Banquet and Purim. There is no record whether they served corned beef and cabbage, or ham and cabbage. (Daily News, 3-4-66). The Scotch, however, are more canny. When pressured to market kosher Scotch, the Scottish Council for Development and Industry explained to Joseph Stern, a Londoner who had propositioned them, that they could not conform to the dietary laws of the Orthodox Jewish faith because "the blending is the whole closely guarded secret of success." With its inimitable skill, the Daily News carried this headline: KOSHER DEAL SCOTCHED. (9-10-65)

Many curious, otherwise unrelated newspaper items give clues to the activities of these True Believers: a humorist comments in his daily column that Chinese Chow Mein is now served kosher in a kosher Chinese restaurant; cake and piecrust recipes increasingly recommend vegetable oil instead of good, old lard; the late Dorothy Kilgallen innocently revealed that ugly-tasting glue (pork-fat based) on stamps and stamped envelopes had given way to a pleasant vegetable derivative (another possible invasion into government tax-monies). Less pleasant is the 35-page brochure explaining dietary laws back to the Talmud and justifying Jewish ritual slaughter of animals — in which Christians are involuntarily implicated when they eat kosher meat (World Telegram, April 4, 1960).

How deadly serious the kosher issue is may be judged by the fact that the Jersey City Medical Center was forced to serve kosher food (Jewish Examiner, 5-27-55); and the Long Island Jewish Hospital (Jewish Examiner, 5-23-52) was forced to endorse Kashruth policies regardless of whom the patient might be. In Minneapolis, a kosher restaurant was set up to serve the many Jews who visited the Mayo Clinic there (B'nai B'rith Messenger, 7-17-53).

U.S.A. A CHRISTIAN NATION

His jeering and sneering tormentors, He said: "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do."

Christ challenged the slavery system and declared that man is the creation of God and is, first of all, responsible to God. Christ preached the freedom and dignity of the individual and his God-given right to come and go freely, to enjoy the fruits of his own labor, to work for himself or to sell his labor for pay, and to own things.

The best way to reduce the exploitation of man by man is to embrace Christianity. Christianity, not handouts, is the hope of the world. Christ was not a Socialist. Christ believed in the profit motive. He recognized that three men had different talents and abilities in varying degrees. Some gained more talents with what they had, and these were rewarded with more talents. However, Christ took away the talent of the man who did nothing and gave it to the man who had ten talents. He congratulated those who profited.

Jesus Christ was not a "moderate." He was an "extremist." The "modernists" amongst us today proclaim that there is no black and white; that sin is imaginary, non-existent; that we are to be "moderate" and "tolerant" in all things, including evil.

An agnostic is a moderate. Moderation is not a virtue when one is moderately wrong or moderately sinful. Christ had this to say about moderates — a religious type He denounced in extreme terms: "I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot. I would thou wert cold or hot. So because thou art neither cold nor hot, I will spew thee out of my mouth."

The Bible is not tolerant; it's "narrow-minded." And so is the compass, radar, the multiplication table, the boiling and freezing points of water, nature and the Kingdom of Heaven. The gates of Hell are broad-minded. God, the Bible, sin, and Jesus Christ are unchanging. Hebrews 13:8 says: "Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today and tomorrow." The Ten Commandments are forever the same. A true Christian has an unchanging standard.

The "modernist" preachers have decreed that God is dead; that Christianity has failed; that they will create a new religion "suitable to our complex times." God is eternal, of course. Christianity has not failed—it hasn't been tried.

We spend billions in the U.N. denying Christianity and promoting the "brotherhood of man." "Brotherhood" in a one-world, raceless, classless society is the new goal. The Fatherhood of God is "old hat." It is difficult enough for Christians to work together—but we are supposed to be "brothers" in this godless, Utopian dream-world. "World Government" is a man-made Kingdom on Earth ruled not by God, nor even by man, but by the devil and Soviet Union.

The Bible tells us to love our brothers and our enemies, but the New Testament, which I believe, admonishes us to love Christians above all.

Loss of faith in God is our nation's—and the world's—most serious problem. When men lose God, they turn to the State. When men lose God, they compromise, appease, lie, steal and make war. The collectivists, anarchists and atheists must "destroy" God to take over the world. Unless we can recapture our religious spirit, re-establish our Christian values, we will soon lose our freedom of choice with respect to life's values.

The collectivist planners have created through "liberal" press and networks, the impression that people who oppose "the brotherhood of man" are hatemongers. Christians crusade not because they hate but because they love.

Jesus did not say: "Peace on earth; good will among men." He did say: "Peace on earth among men of good will."

The God-killers are also killing our country. The morals of our leaders are low because the morals of our people are low. The graveyards of history prove that nations get what they deserve. Few if any nations have ever been conquered from without unless they were rotten within. Our nation was founded by men who believed in God, in individual freedom, in high moral values and in personal responsibility. Whether we survive as free men or slaves depends upon whether we can resurrect our moral and spiritual strength.

The time could be approaching when the question will be not whether America can be saved but whether America is worth saving. Sodom and Gomorrah were not. Only the moral deserve to be free. The Apostle Paul said: "Where the spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty." (II Cor. 3:17).

We cannot oppose evil by compromising with evil. We cannot go forth into all the world and spread the gospel of Jesus Christ if we deny Jesus Christ in the United Nations, in our school and in our daily lives.

Almost incredible today is not the noise of the bad people but the silence of the good people. We become part of what we condone.

Some defeatists say we can't win, that it's all over; that these are the last days, that Armageddon and the millennium are imminent; so why oppose Biblical prophecy? Who has the temerity to say that he knows these are the last days? Where does the Bible say that when the end approaches, you are to quit? WE CAN WIN AND WE CAN'T QUIT.

What can one small voice do? Multiplied, it can work wonders. Let's remember, "I am only one, but still I am one. I cannot do everything, but I can do something. And I will not refuse to do the something that I can do." What can you do? "Pray as if it were all up to God and work as if it were all up to you."

MAN'S INHUMANITY TO MAN

During the fairly recent outrages committed against defenseless Arabs by their hated Zionist enemies, American Jewry within our own government tried to divert American attention away from the baking sands of the Sinai deserts where 50,000 Egyptians were dying of thirst. The Jews ignored the suffering of their victims and cried in a loud voice that Negroes were starving in the Mississippi Delta. Alert spectators of the world political scene will not be fooled by such despicable Zionist tactics. No Negroes were starving in the Delta, a statement that could not be truthfully made of Harlem by its Jewish owners. Upon learning of the Egyptian tragedy in the desert, some American military men planned a mission of mercy and organized a water-lift to the Sinai desert, but it is alleged that when Arthur Goldberg and Dean Rusk learned of this, the American military men were ordered to abandon the water-lift, and the Egyptians were left to perish in the desert.

The crime of genocide, even in the hated UN Charter, is a crime punishable by death. Now, we want war crimes trials, treason trials and genocide trials for Arthur Goldberg and Dean Rusk. We also want war crimes trials for Moshe Dayan, Levi Eshkol, and David Ben Gurion. The real war criminals have not yet been tried, but the day is a-comin'.

An intimate look behind the scene of America's New Deal President, Franklin D. Roosevelt!

What manner of man was he — really? Curtis Dall tells you the story, no holds barred; reveals some of the most historical and blushing events of the Roosevelt Era. Says one reviewer: "He hangs out the White House linens, unlaunched." Other comments: "Adds a new dimension . . . absorbing . . . authentic . . . dramatic . . . entertaining . . . gossipy . . . bulges with anecdotes only a son-in-law would know."

Read for yourself the formerly unknown facts about happenings from Hyde Park to the White House — from tidbits of gossip to earth-shaking decisions!

Separation Of Church And State

The Perth Amboy Evening News, April 11, 1956, further emphasized the Jewish determination to override Christian custom when it ran an item on the Rabbinical Council of N.J. which was calling for stronger kosher food laws in conformity with Hebraic rules and codes — and planned to meet with New Jersey lawmakers on the subject. Are kosher laws now a part of Christian legal procedure?

Even President Eisenhower was used to the secret delight of those who realize the meaning of the event. When he had his heart attack in 1955 at the time he was entertaining an all-male party at Aksel Nielsen's ranch, he had cooked a "lumberjack's breakfast," according to Acting White House press secretary, Murray Snyder. As described in the New York Herald Tribune, under Fraser, Colorado dateline, Sept. 22, 1955, the then President had fried mush, beef sausage and beef bacon but no milk or cream was served "because we didn't want to feel as though we had overeaten." This was Snyder's Aesopian message to those who understood the dietary law which prohibits the serving of meat and milk at the same meal! Then a food columnist reported (New York Journal-American, Nov. 9, 1955) that the demand for beef bacon had skyrocketed since the public learned it was a Presidential favorite — according to the Hebrew National Kosher Sausage Co., of Brooklyn. And hog raisers in the Middle West wondered why there had been a falling off in the demand for pork. They never guessed.

CARE packages, too, are assembled on a kosher basis. During the Hungarian Revolt of 1957, at the Joyce Kilmer Reception Center for Refugees (which was infested with Soviet agents), the U.S. Army prepared three substantial kosher meals for the appreciative guests (paid for by taxpayers of course); and by helicopter and dogsled, Jewish GI's get Passover boxes (World Telegram 3-26-57). This is a far more solicitous concern than that shown Egyptian captive soldiers who were forced to lie face down, naked, in the burning sand at 120 degrees without any water to drink, during the recent Middle East fracas. But, then, Christians are compassionate!

To sum up, the doctrine of separation of church and state is being violated in hundreds of ways in every state in the Union. It remains for some fearless citizen to ask for a ruling as to whether it is legal to buy food products and cleansers that have been manufactured under Jewish religious requirements — to be paid for by the tax money of the non-Jewish citizens.

At the same time, what about the fees or "honorariums" paid to the supervising rabbis? How are these sums in four and five figures reported to the Internal Revenue Bureau — as business earnings on which a tax is due, or as tax-free religious income; if the latter, a religious category violates the doctrine of separation of church and state. It is to be hoped that 1968 will see the entire issue challenged by legal proceedings in the courts.
